AMENDMENTS TO NATIONAL INSTRUMENT 51-101 STANDARDS OF DISCLOSURE FOR OIL AND GAS ACTIVITIES AND RELATED CONSEQUENTIAL AMENDMENTS

On July 1, 2015, amendments to the following rules and forms came into force under the Securities Act:

- National Instrument 51-101 Standards of Disclosure for Oil and Gas Activities (NI 51-101),
- Form 51-101F1 Statement of Reserves Data and Other Oil and Gas Information,
- Form 51-101F2 Report on Reserves Data by Independent Qualified Reserves Evaluator or Auditor,
- Form 51-101F3 Report of Management and Directors on Oil and Gas Disclosure.

Additionally, a new form, Form 51-101F5 Notice of Ceasing to Engage in Oil and Gas Activities was created.

NI 51-101 sets out the annual filing requirements for reporting issuers who are involved in oil and gas activities, notably in respect of their estimates of reserves and resources. In addition, NI 51-101 sets out the general disclosure standards for reporting issuers who are reporting on their oil and gas activities. The disclosure standards apply to any disclosure made by a reporting issuer throughout the year.

The amendments promote improved disclosure of resources other than reserves and associated metrics while simultaneously providing increased flexibility for oil and gas issuers that operate and report in different jurisdictions and recover product types not previously recognized by NI 51-101, and align NI 51-101 with the amended Canadian Oil and Gas Evaluation Handbook.

The full text of the amendments is available in the Ontario Securities Commission's Bulletin starting at (2015), 38 OSCB 2093 and on the Commission's website at <http://www.osc.gov.on.ca>.

(4) A party's annual income for the purposes of recalculating an amount for special or extraordinary expenses, including calculating a new amount for eligible special expenses, is the income amount determined in accordance with subsection (5) or (6), except that if that income amount does not reflect spousal support paid to or received from the other parent in the most recent taxation year, if applicable, the income amount shall be adjusted in accordance with the following:

- 1. If the party paid spousal support to the other party in the most recent taxation year, that amount shall be deducted from the party's income amount.

- 4. If the party indicates that he or she is not receiving income from any source, the party's income amount is $0.

(6) If the child support recalculation service proceeds with a recalculation in the circumstances described in section 17, and income information is not available for the responding party, the responding party's income amount is deemed, for the purposes of the recalculation, to be his or her income as set out in the order, domestic contract or notice of calculation containing the child support amount that is the subject of the recalculation, increased by the following percentage:
